
Fun Berubian Party

Good times.

Nice to see lick it is still around and thriving.

Great job saving poor Ellen, Chris!

Also, I have to say that it frightens me that those um...PURPLE beads are a $5.00 item. Shouldn't they cost more than that? I mean if one was to do with them what they were ahem made for...what if one comes detached? (TMI? Sorry!) I just think a quality product of that... pardon me nature...would cost more than that. What do I know?

Nice to see everyone.

xoxo

This party was AWSOME! It was so nice to see you guys again, I had a lot of fun. I think there were more then one gifts that had to cost more then 5 dollars, but who cares. It was all good.

Sex with Ellen is far more expensive than some plastic beads. She is HOT!
