
New thread only available when you first pop on?

Posted by Carolyn - 2007/07/24 04:43

Very old this girl is to learn new board features.

Also, there is a limit to how long the subject can be? No more subject line novels?

Hope everyone is very fantastical.

xoxo

When you first pop on you see the list of subjects right? Those are new threads. For instance, I just clicked this subject from the list and replied to your new thread. To go back to the other threads, click forum at the top where it says "Welcome, name"

Let's hang out even more!!!

How did your day with Ms. L go?

Will you send me your Ju-Ju on Monday? I already got a commitment from Veronica.

I'm talking to create a new thread. So far I can only find it from the main post board page.
